

Speak vs talk

speak: focus on the person producing the words (speak-spoke-spoken)

Mathew can speak German fluently.

The prime minister spoke about the importance of being prepared for wildfires.

talk: focus on speaker and at least one listener, have a discussion

They spent the whole night talking about what has gone wrong in their relationship. She said she wanted to talk to me about something.