

Idioms

Shopping

pay one's way: pay for yourself, e.g. when you go out with friends and you split the check everyone pays their way fit like a glove: something fits you perfectly, usually a piece of clothing or accessory shopping therapy: when you go shopping to feel better, since shopping is usually accompanied by feelings of happiness